Give yourself a chance!
Through EOF, you can begin your Caldwell University experience today!
The Educational Opportunity Fund (EOF) program, in partnership with Caldwell University, provides financial and educational assistance to eligible students who come from lower-income families. EOF students at Caldwell University receive supportive services such as academic and career advisement, tutoring, motivational and academic skills workshops. The EOF program is guided by a caring and professional staff that stands ready to assist in making the path to a college degree a qualitative educational experience.

HOW DO I QUALIFY?
To qualify for the EOF program you must:
• Be a New Jersey resident for at least one year.
• You must be a US citizen or legal resident.
• Have a high school diploma or G.E.D. certificate.
• Have taken the SAT or ACT (with essay) and meet EOF Academic requirements.
• Meet income eligibility guidelines as set by the NJ Office of the Secretary of Higher Education/EOF Program.
• Possess the potential and genuine interest in completing a bachelor’s degree program.
• Transfer student acceptance is based on availability.

WHAT CAN I EXPECT?
The EOF Pre-Freshman Summer Program at Caldwell University is offered to high school graduates in the summer after your graduation. This required five week summer enrichment program is designed to strengthen your preparation for college-level work and academic success. This exceptional program also provides students with time to become familiar with the campus and faculty while earning college credits!

WHAT ARE THE FINANCIAL REQUIREMENTS?
EOF Income Eligibility Scale 2018-2019

Add $8,320 for each additional member of the household.

Financial eligibility for EOF is based on the size of the family and the combined gross household income.

HOW DO I APPLY?
Students who are interested in applying to Caldwell University through the EOF program must:
• Apply to the university by completing an application and returning it to the Office of Admissions.
• Visit our page at www.caldwell.edu/eof and click on the “Apply to EOF” tab.
• Mail your parents'/guardian’s Federal Income Tax Returns from the previous year in addition to all admissions requirements:
  – Official High School transcript or G.E.D. certificate
  – SAT or ACT (with essay) scores
  – Letters of recommendation (2)
  – Essay
  – Federal Tax Return from previous year
• Complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). List Caldwell University as one of the schools you want to receive the financial aid information (University code 002598). You can complete this form online at: www.fafsa.ed.gov.
• Students who qualify will then be contacted and invited on campus for an interview.

The EOF program has limited enrollment capacity and is filled on a first-come, first-serve basis.
