Dear Friends of Caldwell University,

Once again it is my privilege and honor to recognize and acknowledge our alumni, donors and friends who generously support our mission and in turn contribute to our continued success.

This past year was filled with many proud accomplishments. First and foremost, Caldwell University continues to receive accolades and recognition by U.S. News & World Report. This year, Caldwell is ranked #1 in New Jersey as a Best Value College for Regional Universities in the North, which has resulted in a record-breaking number of applications and increased enrollment. This fall, we opened our doors to over 500 new students, including 450 freshmen.

In addition to increased enrollment, Caldwell University continues to adapt its academic offerings to meet the growing needs of the economy. This fall, we launched three new academic degree programs: a bachelor’s degree in eSports Management, a bachelor’s degree in Computer Science and an online master’s degree in Nursing in Population Health.

One of my favorite moments this fall was the dedication and blessing of the Sister Mary Dominic Tweedus Chapel on September 20, 2019. Over one hundred and fifty guests joined us for the opening mass, and more than fifty alumni, donors and friends made gifts in support of this project. The relocation of the chapel could not have been made possible without the generous support from alumni and friends. The chapel not only reaffirms our identity as a Catholic Dominican institution but serves as a sacred space at the heart of our campus for all.

Another important occasion this year was the dedication of the Eileen Jones Multicultural Center which opened on May 9, 2019. This center was made possible through a very generous gift from Eileen Jones ’57 before she passed earlier this year. Eileen was the first African American student to graduate from Caldwell College for Women. She was truly a pioneer in many ways and credits her education at Caldwell for laying the groundwork for success in her life. This new center not only honors Eileen’s legacy, but supports students from all cultures at Caldwell as we continue to serve an ever-growing diverse student body.

Once again, many of these accomplishments could not be possible without the philanthropic support we receive from alumni, donors and friends. Thank you for your ongoing generosity. I wish you a Happy New Year. I hope that 2020 brings you and your family blessings of good health, joy, and peace.

Sincerely,

Nancy H. Blattner, Ph.D., OPA
President
About Caldwell University

Caldwell University is a vibrant institution that provides its students with an excellent liberal arts and professional studies education. Located in suburban New Jersey, about 20 miles from New York City, Caldwell provides a student/faculty ratio of just 12:1 and offers educational opportunities both inside and outside the classroom. The university was founded in 1939 by the Sisters of Saint Dominic and is accredited by the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools.

Core Values

The core values of Caldwell University emanate from the Catholic Intellectual Tradition, the life of Saint Dominic de Guzman, the Charism of the Sisters of St. Dominic of Caldwell, and the Four Pillars of Dominican Life.

In response to St. Dominic’s desire to pursue truth through education, Caldwell University commits itself to the following core values:

Respect
Respecting the sacred dignity of all creation, we call ourselves to have responsible relationships with each other and with the earth. We value diversity and believe it enriches the University community.

Integrity
We commit ourselves to honesty and professional excellence in all interactions and relationships.

Community
Valuing relationships, collaboration, and inclusivity, we extend this spirit through intentional connections within the campus community and beyond.

Excellence
Aware that each person has a role in creating a just and compassionate global community, we seek to develop a love for lifelong learning and a commitment to the search for knowledge, truth, and solutions to problems.
MISSION STATEMENT

Founded in 1939 by the Sisters of Saint Dominic, Caldwell University promotes intellectual, spiritual, and aesthetic growth to a diverse population and welcomes all cultures and faith traditions. Inspired by St. Dominic de Guzman and our Catholic heritage, we make a difference in the lives of our students and prepare them through the liberal arts and professional studies to think critically, pursue truth, and contribute to a just society.

VISION STATEMENT

Caldwell University will be recognized as a leader in providing transformative education addressing contemporary social, economic, and cultural challenges.

Guided by our core values, Caldwell University programs will be acknowledged for their combination of liberal arts and professionally- oriented learning.

Caldwell University will inspire its students to seek truth, embrace justice, and pursue intellectual study as they engage in experiences within a community of diverse learners. We will prepare women and men to lead successful personal and professional lives consistent with Catholic values through a liberal arts core. A broad range of programs will prepare students to be successful in the global work environment and to apply ethical standards in every aspect of their lives. Our graduates will respect the sacredness of creation and be committed to service, and intellectual life.

Our vision, shaped by our core values of Respect, Integrity, Community, and Excellence, is fostered within the framework of the 800-year tradition of the Dominican Order. This vision inspires us to be compassionate and empathetic as we develop full intellectual, spiritual, and aesthetic lives.

MISSION STATEMENT

The Saint Catherine of Siena Circle gratefully recognizes Caldwell University alumni and friends who respect and support the mission and traditions of the founding Dominican sisters. These special benefactors will maintain the legacy of Caldwell University, having chosen to include the university in a personal way in estate plans, through life income gifts or as beneficiaries of an insurance policy. Their commitment and generosity will help to strengthen and ensure the future of Caldwell University. Lori Funicello, Assistant Vice President for Development and Alumni Affairs, can help guide you through the process. For more information, please contact Lori at 973-618-3226 or lfunicello@caldwell.edu.
